WRIT PETITION No.2391 OF 2007

O R D E R

(Per Sri Justice J.Chelameswar)

This writ petition is filed challenging the interim order dated 22.06.2006 passed by the A.P. Administrative Tribunal in O.A.No.3618 of 2006.

The plain fact is that the petitioners have not chosen to implement the interim orders dated 22.06.2006 passed by the A.P. Administrative Tribunal. Since the order remain unimplemented for a long period of nine months, it appears the respondent-applicant moved Contempt Application vide C.A.No.732 of 2006 in O.A.No.3618 of 2006 before the A.P. Administrative Tribunal and the petitioners herein were put on notice thereby compelling their appearance in the Tribunal. Irked by the said fact, the present writ petition is filed challenging the order, which is almost nine months old. The facts speak for themselves and it is obvious that petitioners have no respect for the judicial orders. In case the petitioners are of the opinion that the order is illegal, they ought to take appropriate steps available to them in law to get the order modified or vacated. Without taking any such steps, the petitioners simply ignored the orders of the Tribunal and now want to challenge the said order when they are compelled to appear before the Tribunal in a Contempt Application.

The above facts, we are of the considered view, do not constitute any reason warranting interference of this Court in exercise of the jurisdiction under Article 226 of the Constitution of India. Accordingly, the writ petition is dismissed at the admission stage itself.
